California Coast Itinerary

July 28, 2012 (Day 1) | San Francisco - Tour Begins

Fly from Harrisburg to San Francisco, and then enjoy your day of leisure.

July 29, 2012 (Day 2) | San Francisco

Welcome as you join us on a scenic journey along California's amazing coast. Your tour begins in "the City by the Bay," San Francisco. Enjoy the ambiance of this lively city, known for its ethnic diversity and unique history. (Dinner)

July 30, 2012 (Day 3) | San Francisco

A local guide showcases the popular landmarks of San Francisco, including the Twin Peaks, the Golden Gate Bridge and Chinatown. Later, enjoy some leisure time to explore Fisherman's Wharf where you may sample cracked crab and the renowned sourdough French bread. Shop in lively Union Square or visit Ghirardelli Square, once the site of one of the largest producers of chocolate in the country. For a true local experience, ride the famed cable cars up and down San Francisco's thrilling hills as you sightsee. (Breakfast)

July 31, 2012 (Day 4) | San Francisco - Yosemite National Park

Today you wind through the majestic Sierra Nevada Mountains en route to one of Mother Nature's greatest masterpieces, Yosemite National Park. While camping at the park in 1903, President Teddy Roosevelt called Yosemite "the most beautiful place in the world." Yosemite's amazing waterfalls, unique rock formations, deep valleys, Alpine meadows and groves of beautiful trees will leave you awestruck as they did Ansel Adams, who lived in the park while taking his famous portfolio of striking photographs. Upon arrival, join your fellow travelers on an open-air tram* to view sites such as Yosemite Falls, Half Dome and El Capitan, as well as learn about the park's history, geology and wildlife. (Breakfast)

*The tour through Yosemite may be conducted on your motorcoach rather than the open air tram (depending upon the weather).

August 1, 2012 (Day 5) | Yosemite National Park - Monterey

Travel to Monterey, the city often called the greatest meeting of land, sea and sky. Monterey is home to the famed 17 Mile Drive, also known as one of the most breathtaking coastlines in the world. Along the drive you will pass through the Del Monte Forest and see such famous sights as the Lone Cypress Tree, perhaps the most photographed tree in the world; Seal Rock, where the seals may actually bark at you; and the Pebble Beach Golf Course. Next, travel to Old Monterey, the place where California's statehood began in 1849, filled with lovingly restored historic buildings and Spanish adobes. An afternoon arrival will allow you time to independently explore charming Old Monterey and shop at Cannery Row, made famous by John Steinbeck. (Breakfast, Dinner)

August 2, 2012 (Day 6) | Monterey - Solvang

Journey 90 miles along the Big Sur Coast, flanked by the Santa Lucia Mountains and the sea sprayed, rocky Pacific, for a trip that will surely take your breath away. Upon arrival in San Simeon, you will visit one of the world's greatest showplaces, the palatial mountaintop retreat of Hearst Castle, built by newspaper magnate William Randolph Hearst. Tour the Castle, built on a 40,000 acre ranch that Hearst frequently camped on as a child. Now a National Historic Landmark, Hearst was constantly building and rebuilding what he simply called "the ranch." As a result, the estate was not completed during Hearst's lifetime and was later donated to the State of California in 1957. Explore some of its 165 rooms and 127 acres of gardens, terraces, pools and walkways. Later, arrive at the quaint Danish village of Solvang, in Santa Barbara County, known for its old-world architecture and flower-lined streets. (Breakfast, Dinner)

August 3, 2012 (Day 7) | Solvang - Santa Barbara - Solvang

Founded in 1911 by a group of Danish educators, Solvang's flower-lined streets and European shops and bakeries are the perfect setting for a morning stroll. Later, you'll leave for Santa Barbara, famous for its breathtaking setting and natural beauty fused from the dramatic mix of mountains, valleys, beaches, islands, and the sea. Some free time allows you to explore the downtown area laced with pedestrian-friendly sidewalks and paseos, with the Santa Ynez Mountains as a lovely backdrop. You may prefer to grab a pedicab (Santa Barbara's answer to the rickshaw) or hop aboard an eco-friendly electric shuttle to the waterfront area famous for Stearns Wharf which has been a part of the scene since 1872. (Breakfast)

August 4, 2012 (Day 8) | Solvang - Los Angeles - San Diego

This morning, continue on your coastal journey to glittering Los Angeles, the "City of Angels," and home to Universal Studios, as well as a host of your favorite musical and film celebrities. See the Graumann's Chinese Theatre, where nearly 200 movie stars have left their hand and foot prints, and see the popular Hollywood Walk of Fame and other famous gems. Tonight, arrive in California's second largest city, San Diego. Known for its ideal climate, 70 miles of pristine beaches, and world-class attractions, San Diego is bordered by the Pacific Ocean, Mexico, the Anza-Borrego Desert, and the Laguna Mountains. (Breakfast)

August 5, 2012 (Day 9) | Solvang - Los Angeles - San Diego

This morning, join a local guide for a comprehensive tour including downtown, the Gaslamp Quarter, Balboa Park, Coronado Island, and Old Town San Diego. The afternoon is yours to experience San Diego at your leisure. Tonight, join your fellow travelers for dinner at a great local restaurant. (Breakfast, Dinner)

August 6, 2012 (Day 10) | San Diego - Tour Ends

Your tour ends today with a flight back to Harrisburg, but the memories will stay with you forever. (Breakfast)
