FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

ALAN J. METZLER NAMED TO BOARD OF DIRECTORS FOR KISH BANK

REEDSVILLE, PA – March 22, 2010 – William P. Hayes, President and CEO of Kish Bank is pleased to announce Alan J. Metzler as the newest addition to the Kish Bank Board of Directors. Metzler has served on the Bancorp's Mifflin County Regional Board since 2005. He will fill a vacancy for a one year term created when the Board expanded the Bank's Board of Directors to 8 from 7 members.

Alan, who is a life-long resident of the Big Valley, is the founder, owner and operator of Metzler Forest Products, a Reedsville based company with more than 60 employees specializing in timbering and land and right-of-way clearing across Pennsylvania. The company is also engaged in the wholesale and retail sale of a variety of timber and forestry related products. He is assisted in the operation of the company by his wife Jill.

Born in Belleville, Alan graduated from the Belleville Mennonite School. He is active in the community and serves as treasurer of the Mifflin County Airport Authority Board, serves on the Board of the Pennsylvania Forest Products Association and on Kish Bank's Mifflin County Regional Board, and was recently elected to serve on the Penn State Extension Board. Alan is an active supporter of United Way, Mifflin County 4-H, local fire companies, and Log-A-Load for Kids Sake, a forestry industry-based fundraising effort that supports local Children Miracle Network Hospitals.

Married since 1984, Alan and Jill have 3 sons; Lucas, an employee of Metzler Forest Products, Logan, who is a sophomore in college, and Nathan, who is a junior in high school. The Metzler family resides outside of Reedsville. Alan is an instrument rated pilot who enjoys flying and hunting.
