

Kish Bank Presents Check to Pink Zone

STATE COLLEGE, PA – May 10, 2018 – Pink Zone, Lady Lion Basketball, and the Kish family of companies came together at the Kish Bank Financial Center in State College this morning to celebrate a successful community partnership that raised $38,542 for Pink Zone this year, bringing the grand total Kish employees, clients, family and friends have raised to fight breast cancer to $166,000 since 2012.

The celebration started when “the pink bus,” a CATA bus wrapped to promote Pink Zone and Kish Bank, pulled up to the Kish Financial Center, where it unloaded a group of breast cancer survivors as well as Penn State Women’s Basketball Head Coach, Coquese Washington, a number of Pink Zone Board members, and Pink Zone Executive Director Susan Woodring.

The group was greeted by Kish Bank’s CEO Bill Hayes and other members of the Kish family who helped lead Kish’s signature fundraising effort.

“Pink Zone, in partnership with Lady Lion Basketball, is a corporate priority for Kish,” said Hayes. “Funds raised – more than $2 million in Coach Washington’s tenure – benefit area hospitals that serve our clients and employees: Mount Nittany Medical Center, JC Blair Memorial Hospital in Huntingdon, Geisinger-Lewistown Hospital in Lewistown, and Milton S. Hershey Medical Center in Hershey. We could not be more proud to support this philanthropic effort, which demonstrates Coquese Washington’s and Kish Bank’s shared values in their enduring commitment to improve the quality of life in the region.”

Coach Washington expressed Pink Zone’s thanks to the Kish family: “We are grateful for the contributions Kish has made to Pink Zone over the years. The way Kish employees galvanize to make an impact for this cause is truly inspiring. Pink Zone would not be the powerful organization it is without the support of the community, and Kish shows what our community can really accomplish when people come together and work together to make a difference in the lives of others,” she said.
