

Matthew Kitting Appointed Branch Manager at Kish Bank

MCVEYTOWN, PA – January 27, 2020 – Kish Bank has announced the appointment of Matthew Kitting as Assistant Vice President and Branch Manager for its McVeytown branch.

Kitting joins Kish with over 25 years of banking experience, including roles as Branch Manager for Fulton Bank and Mellon Bank, Business Services Department Manager for PSECU, and most recently as Business Banking Relationship Manager for Citizens Bank.

A believer in the importance of community involvement, Kitting has coached baseball and Little League, held leadership roles in local chapters of Habitat for Humanity and Keep Pennsylvania Beautiful, and volunteered with numerous organizations, such as The American Heart Association, The American Cancer Society, and The Muscular Dystrophy Association.

Originally from Atkinson Mills, Kitting commutes to McVeytown from his current home in York, PA, where he lives with his wife, Dana, and their pug, Bettis.
