

Penny Zesiger Promoted to Vice President at Kish Bank

LEWISTOWN, PA – May 30, 2019 – Kish Bank has announced the promotion of Penny Zesiger, Assistant Vice President and Residential Lender, to Vice President and Residential Lender.

Zesiger began her career at Kish in 2010 as a Residential Lender at the Kish Bank Financial Center on S. Main St. in Lewistown. Well-versed in a wide range of mortgage solutions, she specializes in First Front Door grants and Pennsylvania Housing Finance Agency (PHFA) and Guaranteed Rural Housing loans, which help to make homeownership more affordable for homebuyers. Zesiger has been recognized as a PHFA Top Producing Mortgage Originator four times, most recently in 2018. Prior to Kish, she was a lender and manager in banking for over twenty years.

Active in the community, Zesiger volunteers with Mifflin County Kid Connection and national Teach Children to Save Day. She is a member and past president of the Rotary Club of Lewistown, past board member and treasurer of the Salvation Army of Lewistown, and past regional board member and president of Junior Achievement.
