

Kish Bank Hires Two Senior Managers

STATE COLLEGE, PA – July 25, 2019 – Kish Bank has announced the appointment of Roxanne Greising to the position of Vice President and Loan Review & Special Assets Manager and Allan Bills to the position of Vice President and Finance Reporting & Analytics Manager.

Greising brings over fifteen years of credit administration experience to Kish. In her new role, she manages the review process of Kish's commercial loan portfolio and is responsible for restructuring complex business, commercial, and real estate problem loans. Previously, she was the Director of Finance Programs with SEDA-COG and Loan Workout Officer with AgChoice Farm Credit, both in Lewisburg, PA. Greising will be graduating with honors from Misericordia University next month, with a bachelor's degree in Business Management and Accounting.
